

Name:

Date:

Hour:

Your mission is to take a journey of wonder and excitement as you go on a scavenger hunt through our textbook (write textbook name here: _____). Make sure you control yourself....it is super awesome exciting!

Your first stop.....THE TABLE OF CONTENTS! Using THE TABLE OF CONTENTS (starting on page viii), answer the following questions in the space provided!

1. The geography handbook begins on what page? _____
2. What two handbooks are found between chapters 2 and 3:

3. Information about the civil war is in found in what chapter and starts on which pages?

4. How many sections are in chapter 10 _____ and what are the names of each section.

Your next stop.....THE INDEX for page number and then use those pages to answer the rest of the questions! WOOOOOO!

5. What page does information about Thomas Edison appear on in our book? _____

6. Using FULL ENGLISH SENTENCES write TWO sentences giving some facts about Thomas Edison.

7. If you wanted to find more information about “civil rights movements for other minorities” which pages would you look on? _____

Name:

Date:

Hour:

8. What page would I find information about Pickett's charge and what was the date it occurred? _____

Your next stop.....THE MAPS! Using the maps on pages A1-A39 answer the following questions.

9. If I needed information about which current states were involved in the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 what page(s) in the maps section would I need to look at?

10. What information does the map on page A31 tell the reader?

11. Which map would I use if I needed to figure out what the capital of Idaho was? (page number of the map) _____

12. What information does the map on page A38 tell me?

You are almost done with your journey! Your last stop is the GLOSSARY (R43). Answer these questions to make your journey complete!

13. What is the definition of: Constitutional Convention

14. What is the definition of: Federalists

15. What is the definition of: Declaration of Independence

